

Tier II and III Systems Development: Training for PBIS Teams

January 5 & 6, 2017

8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. (CST)

Workshop #068-17

GRREC Office & Training Facility • 230 Technology Way • Bowling Green 42101

The Special Education Division is pleased to offer Tier II and III Systems Development: Training for PBIS Teams with Dr. Clayton Cook. School PBIS teams are increasingly aware of the need to better support students with challenging behaviors and to ensure a system is in place to monitor student progress, implementation, and systems support for Tier II and III PBIS. PBIS teams will have the opportunity to learn specific interventions and to discuss and plan how to implement the interventions within their existing PBIS framework.

Learning Targets:

- Increase awareness and use of Tier 2 strategies
- Better support students by matching interventions to function and analyzing data to make decisions
- Determine how to incorporate new interventions discussed within existing framework of interventions
- Understand Cognitive Behavior Therapy strategies and how they can be used with students exhibiting the most complex and challenging behavior problems

Dr. Clayton Cook is a credentialed school psychologist and research scientist. He is the co-founder of Project CREATE, which is a response to intervention program used to address the emotional and behavioral problems of students across multiple settings. Clay has published numerous articles on topics ranging from positive behavior intervention plans to school bullying and victimization. He has also presented at national conferences about students with or at-risk for emotional and behavioral problems.
